

Did you know that.....?

Wylie Shanks Architects are extensively involved in both primary and acute healthcare projects throughout Scotland, including joint-venture community resource centres.

Largs Area Resource Centre; Crosshouse Resource Centre; Springburn Health Centre; Ninewells Oncology extension, Dundee

.....are Accredited in Conservation Architecture with the Royal Incorporation of Architects in Scotland and are presently involved in several Listed Building renovations and conversions.

Govan Police Station conversion; St Joseph's Church, Blantyre; St Mary's Church, Lanark; St Augustine's Church, Coatbridge

.....are architects to The High School of Glasgow (consistently one of the top private schools in Scotland), and have been responsible for projects at their Junior and Senior Schools for over 20 years.

Drama Studio and Music Practice rooms; Main entrance extension; IT suite; Science wing

.....operate a specialist 'homeservice' for the high quality private residential sector and have arguably designed the most industrial floor space in Scotland of any practice, having been architects to the Scottish Development Agency since the 1950's, and more recently large commercial organisations such as the Scottish Daily Record and Amec .

Montrose Gardens, Milngavie; Craigdhu Farm Cottages, Milngavie; Cardonald Printing Works; Peel Park Campus, East Killbride

.....are 96 years young and combine contemporary design with traditional service on projects from £50k to £20m throughout Scotland from their office in Glasgow.

Want to know more.....?

Please visit our website at www.wyliesthanks.com or phone Iain MacLaren or Stephen Kerr.

17 Royal Terrace Glasgow G3 7NY

T 0141 332 8516 F 0141 331 1565 E mailbox@wyliesthanks.com W www.wyliesthanks.com

