

West Midlands Synod of the United Reformed Church

Special Category Ministry Post

Regenerating Communities – Black Country Churches in Mission

Churches Together in Brierley Hill (CTiBH) and BCUIM – Connecting Church and the Economy in partnership with the United Reformed Church, seek an experienced United Reformed Church minister to share in the Churches' engagement in one of the largest urban regeneration projects in Europe and to encourage wider Church participation in regeneration across the Black Country.

This is an exciting and challenging opportunity for someone who is committed to the Church's mission in the community. Experience of the Church's engagement with the wider community is essential and direct experience of regeneration is highly desirable.

Based in Brierley Hill in the Black Country area of the West Midlands, the post-holder will be part of both CTiBH and BCUIM ecumenical teams and will be expected to share in the ongoing development of both the work of the post and of the teams.

The Special Category Ministry post is funded initially for five years and the normal terms and conditions for a United Reformed Church minister will apply.

Those interested are encouraged to contact Mrs Helen Cavaco for more information on 0121 783 1177 or moderators@urwestmidlands.org.uk
