The coveted "Wooden Spoon" for the worst white at a nominated end was claimed by Lis O'Carroll

The award for best gold at 100 yards was won by Guy Dixon; no lady hit the gold at 80 yards in the Hereford.

Guy Dixon also claimed his GNAS award for a Six-Gold end.

Members Steffi Hermanski and Robin Thomson also shot, but did not score full rounds.

Geoff Gaunt was also in attendance, together with Anne, but did not shoot.

Members celebrated the 5th birthday of Kit Furminger with a rousing rendition of "Happy Birthday"

We were honoured to be visited by Philippa Armitage of Abbey Bowmen, St Albans, who recorded a score of 561 shooting a Hereford round in the Recurve.

Conditions were overcast and occasionally breezy.

The fatted calf was consumed
