

Please join us to celebrate

World Autism Day

Monday 2 April 2012

with

Dr Wendy Lawson

Bss, Bsw (Hons), Gdip (PsychStud) Gdip (Psych)
Wendy is an adult on the autism spectrum and a world famous speaker who has been sharing her knowledge and experiences over the past 15 years and

Zaffy Simone

Zaffy is an autistic artist/illustrator, public speaker and trainer and has lifelong experience of the autistic sensory and nutritional systems

also

see the launch of the new MAIN brand

Venue: Beverley School, Saltersgill Avenue, Middlesbrough TS4 3JS

Costs: Parents/carers £15 (including one free child place at our Beverley holiday club on 2 April 2012, subject to availability); Professionals £30

Lunch and refreshments provided

For bookings and further information please contact the telephone number/email address below.

Don't miss this exciting opportunity to see these two amazing experts speaking together at these unbelievable prices!

All profits from this event go towards improving the lives of individuals and families on the autism spectrum.