

FACULTY BIOGRAPHY

CARLO MOSCA SOLICITOR, COMMERCIAL MEDIATOR

Carlo Mosca is partner at Mosca & Associates Law Firm in Treviso (Venice - Italy). His main professional area of work is international contracts and investment, and relevant disputes.

He qualified as a solicitor in 1983, began his international practice in 1985 and has been working on ADR projects and promotion of mediation practice in Italy since 1994. In particular, he has inspired the creation of Curia Mercatorum, one of the more active ADR Italian centers. He participates as an expert to the 'Arbitration and Mediation Committee' with Unioncamere, the governmental agency that co-ordinates the Italian chambers of commerce.

He became an accredited CEDR mediator in 1996. At the beginning of 1997 he realised an Italian version of the mediation basic skills CEDR course, that has been successfully delivered several times since then. He joined the CEDR Training Faculty in 1999. He is a regular speaker and trainer on ADR topics.

He has mediated commercial cases, mostly of international profile, involving sales, works, investments, distribution contracts. He regularly advises the clients of his firm on utilising ADR, and mediation in particular as a mean of resolving disputes.
