

Social Stories – Free Workshop

For parents/teachers/TA's –to be held at Aylward School on Friday 26th February 9.30-11.30
Course facilitator: Pauline Burt – Advisory teacher for children with an autistic spectrum condition.

If you work or live with a child or young person with a diagnosis of an autism spectrum and you would like to learn a strategy to help reduce anxiety, develop social understanding, prepare for change this may be the course for you!

Whether it is your first training in this strategy, or if you would like a refresher to feel more confident in writing social stories, you will be most welcome.

Unfortunately, the session will not be suitable for people who do not have a basic understanding of autism – it is highly recommended that you access an autism awareness course before attending.

If you require basic autism awareness training please e mail chris.myers@harrow.gov.uk if there are sufficient numbers we may organise a course in the near future. Please be aware that Chris is an administrative assistant and will be unable to respond to issues not related to the above course(s).

To secure a place please telephone:

Chris Myers – 020 8416 8862 - no later than Monday 22nd February.

Places will be designated on a first come first serve basis.

Aylward School, Pangbourne Drive, Stanmore, HA7 4RE – Please do not contact the school direct
