

CONFIDENTIAL

Officeholder declaration

All people nominated or holding positions in the Methodist Church must sign a declaration (except local preachers and worship leaders, ministers, and those working with children or vulnerable adults for whom other forms apply)

Holding an office, post or responsibility, especially a public or trustee role (church council member or committee member) is a privilege and a responsibility – it is not a right. The Church reserves the right not to appoint (or take steps to remove from office) someone where they are found to be ineligible, unsuitable or where they have not declared information that should otherwise have been disclosed. Where certain criteria are fulfilled there can be an appeal to the secretary of Conference, via those appointing, against a bar from a particular appointment.
