- Parklands Learning & Care Centre (PLACC) aims to offer working parents a safe environment for their children. It operates within a separate unit on the site of Parklands Primary School and provides a wide variety of activities including arts, crafts, planned activities, theme trips, pool, play station, computers, team games, competitions, quizzes, food, religious & cultural events, drama. We have access to a vast playing field for rounders, football, rugby, cricket, and a playground area.
- We regularly go out to local parks & places of interest so suitable clothing & foot wear is needed.
- Morning & Afternoon snacks are provided but children need to bring a packed lunch.

Placc aims to provide a stimulating environment where emphasis is put on ' FUN FOR ALL'
