Proof of name and address for young saver account

As the adult opening the account, you must produce two forms of identification, one to prove your name and one to prove your address. If the young saver does not live at your address, you will also need to bring proof of their address. The young saver's identity can be proved with a birth certificate, passport or a letter from their school confirming their name, address and that they attend the school.

To prove the adult's name, please bring one of the following:

- a current signed passport;
- a current UK photocard driving licence;
- a current full UK paper driving licence (old style);
- a disabled driver's pass with your photo;
- a benefit book or original letter stating you will receive benefit;
- a letter from the pension service;
- an Inland Revenue tax notification such as a tax assessment, statement of account, notice of coding;
- an employee photographic ID card;
- a bank or credit card with a statement for that account (statement not more than 3 months old);
- a letter from a person in a position of responsibility confirming your identity (for example, a teacher, social worker, hostel manager or doctor).

To prove the adult's address, bring one of the following:

- a gas, water or electricity bill (no more than three months old);
- a Council Tax bill (for the current year);
- a bank or building society statement;
- a current mortgage statement;
- a council rent card or tenancy agreement;
- a current UK driving licence;
- a benefit book or letter;
- Inland Revenue correspondence;
- Pension Service documentation;
- a letter from a person in a position of responsibility confirming your address (for example a teacher, social worker, hostel manager or doctor).
